COURT ROLLS, RENTALS, SURVEYS AND ANALOGOUS DOCUMENTS IN THE JOHN RYLANDS LIBRARY.

BY F. TAYLOR, M.A., PH.D.,
KEEPER OF WESTERN MANUSCRIPTS IN THE JOHN RYLANDS LIBRARY.

THE calendar below comprises court rolls, court books, compotus rolls, rentals, surveys, terriers, and similar documents which the Library has acquired by purchase, donation, or deposit down to and including 1945; it is confined to manors, lands and property in England. These documents are scattered throughout several collections of widely differing size and provenance now preserved in the Charter Room and Manuscript Rooms, the following nineteen having yielded relevant material: the Latin MSS., English MSS., Nicholas Papers, Phillipps Charters and Rylands Charters and, among deposited groups, the Mainwaring MSS., Jodrell MSS., Supplementary Jodrell MSS., Tatton Deeds, Clowes Papers, Crutchley Deeds, Hatton Wood MSS., and collections entrusted to the Library's care by the Earl of Stamford, the Lords of the Honor of Clitheroe, the Lancashire and Cheshire Antiquarian Society, the British Records Association, the Norfolk Record Society, the Society of Genealogists and Miss E. Sadler. Not all these documents have as yet been dealt with in print, and even where this has been the case, it has

1 For Latin MSS. 1-183 see M. R. James's Catalogue (1921), for 184-395 M. Tyson's Hand-List (1928) and for 396-447 F. Taylor, Supplementary Hand-List of Western MSS. (1937), pp. 7-21. English MSS. 1-865 were described by Dr. Tyson in two Hand-Lists of 1929 and 1935, and 866-907 in Taylor, op. cit., pp. 21-31. A Hand-List of the Mainwaring and Jodrell MSS. by R. Fawtier was published in 1923 and the Nicholas Papers and Phillipps Charters were listed by the same writer in 1925 in his Hand-List of Charters, Deeds and Similar Documents in the Possession of the John Rylands Library, Vol. 1. Rylands Charters 1-2011 were listed by Tyson in Vol. 2 (1935) of the same series and 2012-2976 by Taylor in Vol. 3 (1937). Indexed Hand-Lists of Ryl. Ch. 2977-4779, Latin and English MSS. acquired after 1937, the Tatton Deeds, Clowes Papers, Legh of Booths Charters (part of the Hatton Wood MSS.), and Crutchley Deeds may be consulted in the Library pending publication, together with lists or card-indexes of most Manorial records form a comparatively high proportion of the items in the present calendar. Court rolls for over seventy manors in some fourteen counties are represented, in addition to suit rolls and jury presentments for several others, mainly in Cheshire. In particular may be mentioned the fine series of court rolls for Bourn Hall in Wherstead, Suffolk (thirteenth-eighteenth centuries), West Horsley, Surrey (fourteenth-eighteenth centuries), Longford, Derbyshire (fourteenth-seventeenth centuries), Sutton Frene, Herefordshire (fourteenth-sixteenth centuries), and for Lancashire manors under the jurisdiction of the Lords of the Honor of Clitheroe (fourteenth-nineteenth centuries). Among other early rolls are those for Halton in Cheshire (1392-1399), and Haddon (1394-1395, 1401-1403) and Newton Solney (1353-1354, 1403-1405, 1475), both in Derbyshire. Many other manors are represented by rolls, individual or in series, of the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, including Quedgeley, Whaddon and Frocester in Gloucestershire (sixteenth-seventeenth centuries), Goddlesford in Suffolk (1600-1717), and various manors of John Le Scrope in Yorkshire (1537) and Sir John Thynne in Wiltshire, Somersetshire and Gloucestershire (1568-1569). The earliest court roll listed below is for 1276 (Bourn Hall in Wherstead).

In addition to rolls a number of court books and presentment books also occur, the two earliest being for the manor, Hundred and Forest of Gillingham, Dorset (1469-1546), and for the manor of Over Peover, Cheshire (1497, 1508, 1510, 1681-1711); the latter is unfortunately imperfect. Other court books are those of Old Withington (1574-1583), Barnshaw and Goostrey (1653-1654), Baddiley (1665-1728), and Northenden (1667-1700), all in Cheshire, Prestwich (1560-1571), Barton (1692-1768), Hambledon (1748-1768), Penwortham (1780-1802), and Kirkby Ireleth (1757-1821) in Lancashire, Bottesford (1547-1689) in Lincolnshire, Framfield (1665-1675) in Sussex, and of the manor of the other groups mentioned above. Further information concerning the collections in the Charter Room will be found in Taylor, The Charter Room in the John Rylands Library (1947).
Austin's in Middleton (1694-1754) in Suffolk. Estreats of court rolls have also been included, as have extracts from proceedings at manor courts. The words "extract(s) from proceedings" are used here solely to describe records of surrenders and admissions of tenants, commonly known as "copies of court roll". In cases where the original roll is not in the Library the "extract" is included in the body of the calendar; otherwise it is given in a footnote.

A number of interesting account rolls of bailiffs, farmers and collectors of rents, most of them pre-1500, may also be noted. For Norfolk there are compotus rolls of East Carlton (1277-1278, 1406-1407), West Harling (1328-1378), Gasthorpe (1417-1418), Burnham Deepdale (1454-1455) and Ingham (1506), for Nottinghamshire similar rolls for the manors of Osberton (1397-1398) and Epperstone (14 Hen. IV-2 Hen. V), and for Lincolnshire a fine series for Scotter (1372-1544). With these may be mentioned the rolls of bailiffs and collectors for Urchfont (1448-1449, 1522-1526) in Wiltshire, held by St. Mary's Abbey, Winchester; Longford (1492-1493, 1494-1495) and North Wingfield (1492-1493) in Derbyshire; Cottingham (1523-1524) in Northamptonshire; and various Cheshire, Leicestershire and Shropshire manors (19-20 Hen. VII). Rentals are particularly numerous and, although the majority are of the sixteenth, seventeenth or eighteenth century, a number date from the fifteenth. Among these are five for lands, etc., in Cheshire, including Knutsford Booths (1408), Over Peover and Baddiley (1425) and Lostock Gralam (1434); four, all of 1476, for Derbyshire (Barlborough, Hathersage, Longford and Newton Solney); and four for Lancashire, three relating to holdings of the Harringtons in Preston and one to Cockersand Abbey. Rentals of two other religious houses occur in copies, namely, of Thornton Abbey in Lincolnshire (1443) and the Priory of St. Peter and St. Paul at Ipswich (sixteenth century). Perhaps one of the most important items of this nature, however, is the bulky volume containing sixteenth and early seventeenth century rentals and surveys of the manor, town and lordship of Oswestry, which has the additional interest of having formerly been in the possession of Scipio Le Squyer, who was a Deputy Chamberlain of the Exchequer from 1620 to 1659. Finally, the attention of local historians is drawn to the various surveys of Cheshire lands, notably those of the Tatton estates, and to the roll of the Macclesfield mayoralty court for 1404-1405.

The arrangement of the documents below follows the system adopted by the Library in its Hand-Lists of deeds and charters; that is, chronological within geographical. The running numbers from 1 to 335 have been introduced for indexing purposes only and are not the correct finding references. These are given within round brackets at the end of each item; e.g. for No. 128 the correct reference is Ryl. Ch. 749. Cross-references to modern spellings of place names will be found in the Index.
